—The Louisville Times in Monday's issue has about five pages devoted to the financial standing of the various industries, manufacturers and industrial institutions of the city, which shows the progress of the city in a very commendable feature on the part of the Times, and one which shows the interest the paper has in the development of its industrial enterprise. That, be it said, is what we are anxious to do in our grand history of Richmond and Madison county that is now at work on.

—The late experience of the Bureau of Forestry says: "Kentucky people are beginning to experience what Spain and India and other deforested countries have experienced, and that is the terrible loss alternating with drought, and at the same time a diminished and fluctuating rainfall from the same general cause. A well wooded country is a well watered country. The removal of the forest trees changes a climate, there is less humidity and the extremes of heat and cold are more marked. If it be deforested that is making the change for worse. In this region and causing the drought—and there is every reason to believe that such is the fact—behaves the people to turn and help their own country—that is by taking measures through legislative enactment and otherwise for the preservation of its forests."

Physician's Good Luck

Dr. Hart's Fortunate Experience of Special Interest to Many in Richmond

The happiest man in New England today and one who is receiving congratulations from his friends, a Dr. Philip Z. Hart, of Laconia, N. H.

Probably no physician is better known in all parts of the United States than Dr. Hart, as he has been a great traveler and knows the best people wherever he has been. For years he has suffered with catarrh in his worst form.

Although he resorted to the latest scientific treatment, and consulted many of his brother physicians, Dr. Hart finally said, "I might just as well have thrown my money in the river for I grew weary and weary. It is really due to my wife's good judgment that I tried Hymene." The doctor's own emphatic words added "Thank God that I did, for Hymene cured me completely. My wife is the best of friends."

Dr. Hart's wife is a noble woman, and she is a great blessing to her husband. She is a great blessing to her husband. She is a great blessing to her husband.
